

Later saved endpoints versus exact flow from the represented incoming state

A Maximum node error: certified upper bounds

B Finite pressure sum: signed error magnitude and triangle bound

Ticks: retained momentum cutoff K. Open/left: $\eta = -4$; filled/right: $\eta = -7/2$. Pressure intervals are narrower than their symbols.
 Display only: exact rational CSV governs bounds and signs. Finite nodes/endpoints; no dense-path or continuum certificate.