

Finite-band numerical checks

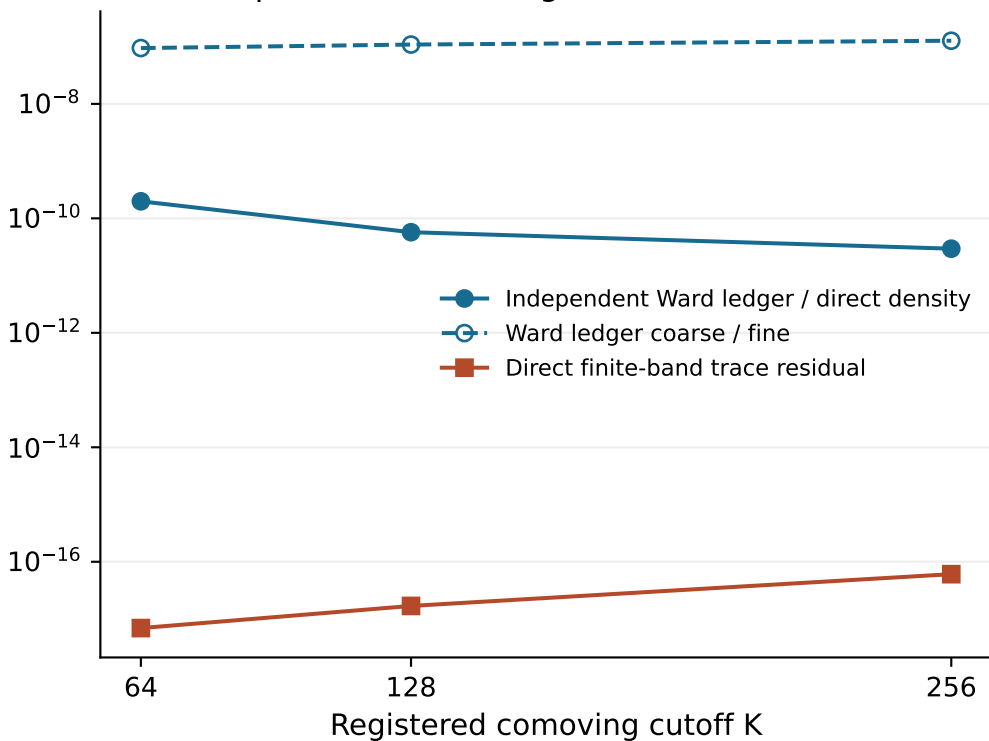

Maximum absolute difference over registered observations

Direct stress agreement and refinement

Maximum absolute difference over registered observations

Independent Ward ledger and matched trace

Residuals use the registered normalization. These checks remain numerical evidence, separate from the analytic UV tail theorem.
 Ward uses physical Q0,K and independently saved direct-stress histories; the density was not defined by the ledger.